Primary School Visits

The Soldiers of Gloucestershire Museum currently offers two taught education sessions for Primary Schools.

These sessions focus on either World War One, or World War Two, and look at the part played by those serving with the Gloucestershire Regiments and how the lives of the people of the County were affected.

See below for a brief outline of each session.

World War One in Gloucestershire

This session gives a good overview of the First World War but also looks at how the lives of the people of Gloucestershire were affected—both on the frontline and at home. The visit lasts for 2 hours and includes a one hour taught session in our Regimental Boardroom, and an interactive trail through the museum galleries.

The children will handle real objects from the First World War during the visit and learn about joining up, going to War, being a soldier on the frontline, and how the lives of those left behind at home were affected.

World War Two in Gloucestershire

This session gives a good overview of the Second World War but also looks at how the lives of the people of Gloucestershire were affected. The visit lasts for 2 hours and includes a one hour taught session, and an interactive trail through the museum galleries.

The children will handle real objects and learn about going to War, the Home front (and rationing), the Gloucestershire Regiment, and Blackouts and Air raids.

If you would like to book a visit or talk with our bookings officer, please see full contact details on the back page of this booklet.

A Risk Assessment information sheet is available upon request, along with information regarding curriculum links for each session.

General visits to the museum are also welcome, please contact us for more information.
